

Queen City Invitational 2022 Virtual Competition Guidelines

Queen City has added a Virtual hybrid option to our competition. The submitted routines will be judged with the in-person routines within each session at the competition.

As a provincially sanctioned event, we will be adhering to Gymnastics Saskatchewan's Virtual Competition Guidelines.

<http://gymsask.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/01/Virtual-Cometition-guidelines-Jan-11-2022.pdf>

Video Recording

- All recording will be in accordance with Gymnastics Saskatchewan Virtual Guidelines.
- With the challenges that COVID has brought forth for our athletes, clubs have the flexibility to record routines any time from February 7 – 21, 2022. All gymnasts must warm up according to the technical regulations.
- Remember to hold up a whiteboard/paper with athlete's full name, club & level into the recording device before the athlete competes their routine.

Video Submission Deadline

Videos must be submitted by 5pm on February 22nd using the following email address:

qcgc.virtualmeet@gmail.com

Set up your videos in a Google Drive into the following folders:

Main Folder - "Club Name"

Sub-folders - "WAG – Vault, Bars, Beam, Floor", "MAG – Floor, Pommel, Rings, Vault, P Bars, H Bar"

Please share the Main folder with the above email address. Please DO NOT share each video individually as the videos get lost. If you do not share the videos like the preceding outlined information we will not accept them.